

PROJECT DATA SHEET

Project Name : Kang Keng Airport, Cambodia. Preliminary Detailed Design-Phase I

Project no. : 7016

Country :

Cambodia

State / Region :

Sihanoukville

Client :

Ariston Sdn Bhd

No. of Professional Staff Involved :

6

No. Of Professional Man-Months :

15

Approximate Value of Project :

RM 30 Million

Start Date :

April 1996

Completion Date :

June 1997

Associate firms (if any) : Sir William Halcrow & Partners

Description of Project and Services Provided:

Ariston Sdn Bhd was awarded the USD 1.3 billion Sihanoukville Regional Development Project In Cambodia. The project includes:

- i) The development and construction of Cambodia`s second international airport
- ii) The development of international casino and convention resort hotel complex at Naga Island and infrastructural facilities such as an independent power plant.

Integrated Sdn Bhd and Sir William Halcrow and Partners (M) Ltd in a joint venture association (HSSI Halcrow) was appointed by Ariston Sdn Bhd to undertake the preliminary and detailed design of Phase 1 Development of Kang Keng Airport in Sihanoukville, Cambodia. Kang Keng Airport is situated to the east of Sihanoukville in a wide valley bounded by hills to the east and west

Services :

- Identification and preparations of all services required for topographical, geotechnical and condition survey.
- Preparation of airport development layout plant.
- Preliminary and detailed engineering design for taxiway/apron to accommodate ATR 72 aircraft at present and Boeing aircraft in future.
- Terminal building area including Cambodia architecture and all ancillary works.
- Approach roads, car park layout.
- Infrastructure drawings for rainwater drainage, water supply and sewerage.
- Mechanical and electrical services layout for the airport complex.